KEITH STRONG
TO ADDRESS
ST. IGNATIUS P.T.A.

MISSOULA---

A 20-year-old University of Montana junior from St. Ignatius will address the members of the St. Ignatius P.T.A. on Wednesday (Jan. 14).

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the St. Ignatius Library. Keith Strong, who was graduated from the St. Ignatius High School in 1967, said the purpose of his visit is to provide an information service to adults in that area about student life on the UM campus.

This is the 12th visit the UM Student Ambassadors have made so far this year for the purpose of telling their side of the story about what they feel is happening at the University.

Problems faced by students on many college campuses, issues that young people of today are interested in, and a look at campus facilities from the student viewpoint will be discussed by Strong, with a brief slide program and a question-answer period following.

Strong said he hopes "the program will lead to greater understanding and appreciation of both today's college student and the University of Montana."

His visit to St. Ignatius is cosponsored by the UM Alumni Association and the Associated Students at UM through the school's Student Ambassador Program. Strong is State chairman of Project 19, a statewide movement to campaign for the 19-year-old vote in Montana.
